Received from
His Highness on 16.1.50

New Delhi
10th January 1950

Your Highness.

On the 26th of January 1950, according to the Constitution of India, a Supreme Court will come into existence and it has been decided to celebrate that event at a sitting of the Court on Saturday the 28th January 1950 at 10 a.m. The functions of the day will consist of the meeting of the Court followed by a conference of the Chief Justices. There will be a lunch and a reception in the evening. Those who come for the occasion will be able to leave Delhi, if they so desire, on Sunday the 29th. The Chief Justices and Advocates-General of the High Courts of the 'States' are invited to be present on the occasion, if they can conveniently come.

I do not know who will be the Chief Justice and the Advocate-General of the High Court of your State as the appointments are not finalized upto now. I am sending this letter to your Highness so that when the appointments are made you will kindly extend the invitation to the Chief Justice and the Advocate-General of your High Court.

If the Chief Justice and/or the Advocate-General of your High Court decide to attend I shall be obliged if you will ask them to communicate their Delhi address to the Registrar of the Federal Court (Council Chamber, New Delhi 3.) so that late communications in Delhi may be sent to that address.

Yours sincerely
H.J. Kania

His Highness Sir Sri Jaya Chamarajendra Wadiyar Bahadur, GCB. GCSI.
Maharaja of Mysore,
Mysore.
